

Section 22. ODORS

There will be limited odors generated during the construction phase of the Downeast Wind Project (Project), primarily due to exhaust from mechanized tree harvesting, construction equipment, and large vehicle traffic.

There are no odors anticipated from operations of the Project.