

Contacts for Certified Food Protection Manager Exams and Courses

A certified food protection manager (CFPM) certificate must accompany the application for a new establishment and change of ownership. A CFPM must be hired within 60 days of the departure of the last CFPM leaving employment.

In the State of Maine, the exams at the following link will be accepted as meeting the requirements for certification:

<https://anabpd.ansi.org/Accreditation/credentialing/personnel-certification/food-protection-manager/ALLdirectoryListing?menuID=8&prgID=8&statusID=4>

You must submit a certificate from one of the approved exams listed above.

Please submit your CFPM certificate to your district health inspector, or mail to our offices at:

Health Inspection Program,
286 Water St.
Augusta, Me 04333-0011

Or email the Health Inspection Program Licensing Clerk at HIPLicensing.DHHS@maine.gov

Exemptions

The following establishments are exempt from the CFPM requirement and do not require a CFPM:

- Temporary eating establishments that operate fewer than 14 days;
- Bed and breakfast and lodging establishments that serve a continental breakfast consisting of non-potentially hazardous baked goods, whole fruit or fruit sliced for same-day service, cereal, milk, juice, portion controlled cream cheese, portioned controlled peanut butter, and portion controlled jam or jelly;
- Establishments that serve or sell non-potentially hazardous pre-packaged foods (non-time/temperature control for safety (TCS) foods);
- Establishments that prepare only non-potentially hazardous foods (non-TCS foods); and
- Establishments that heat only commercially processed, potentially hazardous foods (TCS foods) for hot holding. No cooling of potentially hazardous foods (TCS foods);
- Sporting/ Recreational Camps operating 90 days or less and serving only their own residential guests; and
- Eating establishments which pose minimal risk of causing, or contributing to, foodborne illness, based on the nature of the operation and the extent of food preparation.
